Day of Thanksgiving celebrates missionaries

September 7, 2023 / Reporter / By Sarah Reinsel

John and Erica Tape, former LCMS missionaries to the Dominican Republic, receive a gift from the Rev. James Krikava (left), associate executive director of the LCMS Office of International Mission (OIM), and greet the Rev. Dr. Mark Rabe, OIM director of recruitment, on Aug. 18 in St. Louis. (LCMS/Erik M. Lunsford)

On Friday, Aug. 18, The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod’s (LCMS) Office of International Mission (OIM) hosted a Day of Thanksgiving to celebrate missionaries who have recently finished their service, recognize alumni missionaries and send first-time missionaries to the mission field.

The day began with a Service of Thanksgiving, held during daily chapel at the LCMS International Center (IC) in St. Louis, followed by a luncheon and fellowship.

After chapel, the following missionaries were honored for coming to the end of their service:

Alyssa (Anders) Knock, who served in Turkey from 2015 to 2016 and Russia from 2016 to 2020;

The Rev. Joel and Deaconess Clarion Fritsche and children Victor, Sergei and Andrei, who served in the Dominican Republic from 2014 to 2023; and

John and Erica Tape and daughter Sophie, who served in the Dominican Republic from 2021 to 2023.

Reflecting on her years as a missionary in Russia, Knock remarked, “It’s an encouragement to people ... to know that there are people from a totally different country who are so passionate about the message of Christ crucified that they’re willing to travel and move to your country. ... The church is an amazing thing.”

The Day of Thanksgiving also marked the end of eight weeks of new missionary orientation for three new missionaries.

The Rev. Bryan and Deaconess Keah Payne, along with their children, Serenity and Dalton, will begin their mission work in Tanzania.

“When we’re able to integrate into the new culture and the new society, then we’re able to preach Christ crucified so much better because we know the people, and we know their needs, and we even know their language. [Our training] has given us a great foundation to do that,” said Rev. Payne.

“The amount of people who are praying for us, and the IC, which is full of people who are here to support, make us able to go and freely speak [the Gospel],” said Deaconess Payne.

Debbie Dyjak, who is currently enrolled in the online deaconess program at Concordia Theological Seminary, Fort Wayne, will begin mission work in Latvia.

“We had chapel every morning, Vespers every evening. Pastor Daenzer [IC chaplain] came and talked yesterday on suffering, we were reading Scripture together, we prayed before all our meals — we were totally immersed in the Word of God. It was nothing like any other orientation I’ve had with any other job,” said Dyjak.

Dyjak also remarked that longtime friends — including one of her grade school teachers and her youth group leader — were very influential in her becoming a missionary.

Preaching for the Service of Thanksgiving, the Rev. James A. Krikava, OIM associate executive director, advised new missionaries:

“As you hone your gift of tongues, in your new field and language, you will find how your limitations will serve to make you sharper in sharing the wisdom of God, instead of your own. Take advantage of it. Learn your Bible passages in the new language. You’ve memorized the catechism — memorize it in the new language, and you will become a blessing to the people that you serve.

“In this way,” Krikava continued, “you will comfort and raise up fearful consciences with the forgiveness won on the cross by Jesus, now distributed and given through His resurrection from the dead, and continuing with us always, even to the end of the age, with Word and Sacrament.”

OCTOBER STEWARDSHIP

It's in the Way that You Use It

Consider the humble baseball bat. It is a simple tool designed for a complex task. The batter needs a tool that can consistently deliver force to a small ball which may be thrown at over 100 miles per hour, but which might also come slanting across the plate as a slow curve. For a game like this, the founders of baseball had to redesign the old cricket bat, which is more of a flat paddle. The tool had to fit the job.

But even a specially-designed tool can be used for a different purpose. It turns out that some years ago in England, the home of cricket, baseball bats suddenly started selling like hotcakes. What were folks across the pond doing with all those baseball bats? Using them as clubs in riots!

A tool can be used, and it can be misused. It's all in the way that you use it.

The same is true with the things of God. The Second Commandment states that we should "not misuse the name of the Lord." In the Small Catechism, Luther goes on to tell us exactly what this misuse is, as well as the proper use:

"We should fear and love God so that we do not curse, swear, use satanic arts, lie, or deceive by His name, but call upon it in every trouble, pray, praise, and give thanks." (SC I)

The Lord has given us His name: He has placed it upon us in Holy Baptism and He has invited us to pray to Him as our Father. In this sense, the Lord's name is something for us to use. We should not misuse it ... and we should not fail to use it. The Pharisees of old were so afraid of misusing the name of God that they decided to simply never say the name of God (YHWH, Jehovah) at all! This non-use is just as bad as misuse. The Lord gives His gifts for our use.

A Christian steward is one who is called to use all of God's gifts for His purposes. This includes things like the Name of God, the Sacraments and the Word, and it also includes things like our family and friends, our talents and skills, our money and resources. Everything that God has given to you, He has given to you so that you may be blessed to use it for His kingdom.

It's all in the way that you use it!
